

NEW RELEASE: Abra Cadaver by Jerold Last, the newest entry in the Roger and Suzanne series, features champion German shorthaired pointer Juliet demonstrating her new abilities as a cadaver dog, which makes her the perfect pet for private detective Roger Bowman. The setting is a winery in a small town in Northern California's Central Valley. Roger is hired to find a husband who goes missing a few days after his wedding. And the reader is off on another suspenseful case that will entertain mystery fans, dog lovers, and wine aficionados. Like all the Roger and Suzanne books the language is clean, the sex is offstage, and readers can begin the series with this standalone novel. Free from Kindle Unlimited.
